The
2014-2015
Rotary Theme is:

A Message from President
Sam P. Sentelle

Situated between Charleston and Huntington, Putnam Rotary draws on the business and professional ranks across the Kanawha Valley in multiple projects to enhance community growth and quality of life.

The club enjoys a diverse membership of all ages and interests — rising young professionals, active community leaders and retirees — with opportunities for service to suit every interest and talent.

We join with Rotary International in a continuing push to eradicate polio with an annual Pancake Breakfast at Applebee's in Liberty Square. We support clean water projects and orphanages in Uganda and Haiti.

We support Fruth pharmacist Shelly Hodges in her annual trip to support Friends of Fort Liberté, a West Virginia mission which began in St. Albans forty years ago.

Closer to home, we have offered scholarship assistance to Putnam students in West Virginia schools for twenty years. Last year the club awarded three scholarships for $2,000 each and a student leadership award of $1,000.

For those who enjoy the fellowship and direct action of “hands-on” work, Putnam Rotarians take part in a number of community activities, most supported in part by the Rotary International Foundation. Among these:

- The National Dictionary Project
- Habitat for Humanity
- Student Portfolio Fairs
- Salvation Army Christmas Kettles
- High School Interact Clubs
- The Teays Valley Strings
- Tri-County Y and Camp High Tor
- BackPack Buddies
- Putnam Libraries Summer Reading
- Community Cupboards
- The Putnam County Fair
